Jewish Federation & Family Services, Orange County is very proud to partner with JLife magazine to bring our community the most exciting, most comprehensive new OC Jewish Community Directory.

Jewish OC: Community Directory 2016-2017 is a beautiful, full-color gloss publication that serves as the annual guide for the Jewish community of Orange County, California.

With a print run of 20,000, our directory reaches over 80,000 members of the Jewish community with home circulation and high traffic drops throughout the year. And by displaying our directory on the web, it will be accessed by thousands more online.
